

2 0 2 3
COHORT

WORKER VOICE & POWER

Ron Scott
Melaak Rashid
Grace Heffernan
Nicole Rosenbaum
Ángel Reyes-Rodríguez
Crystal Reed

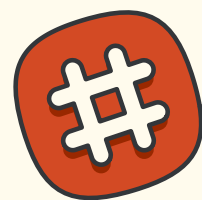

GROUNDING OUR WORK

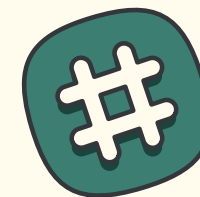

1

2

WHAT IS WORKER VOICE?

WHAT IS WORKER POWER?

DID WE

HOW

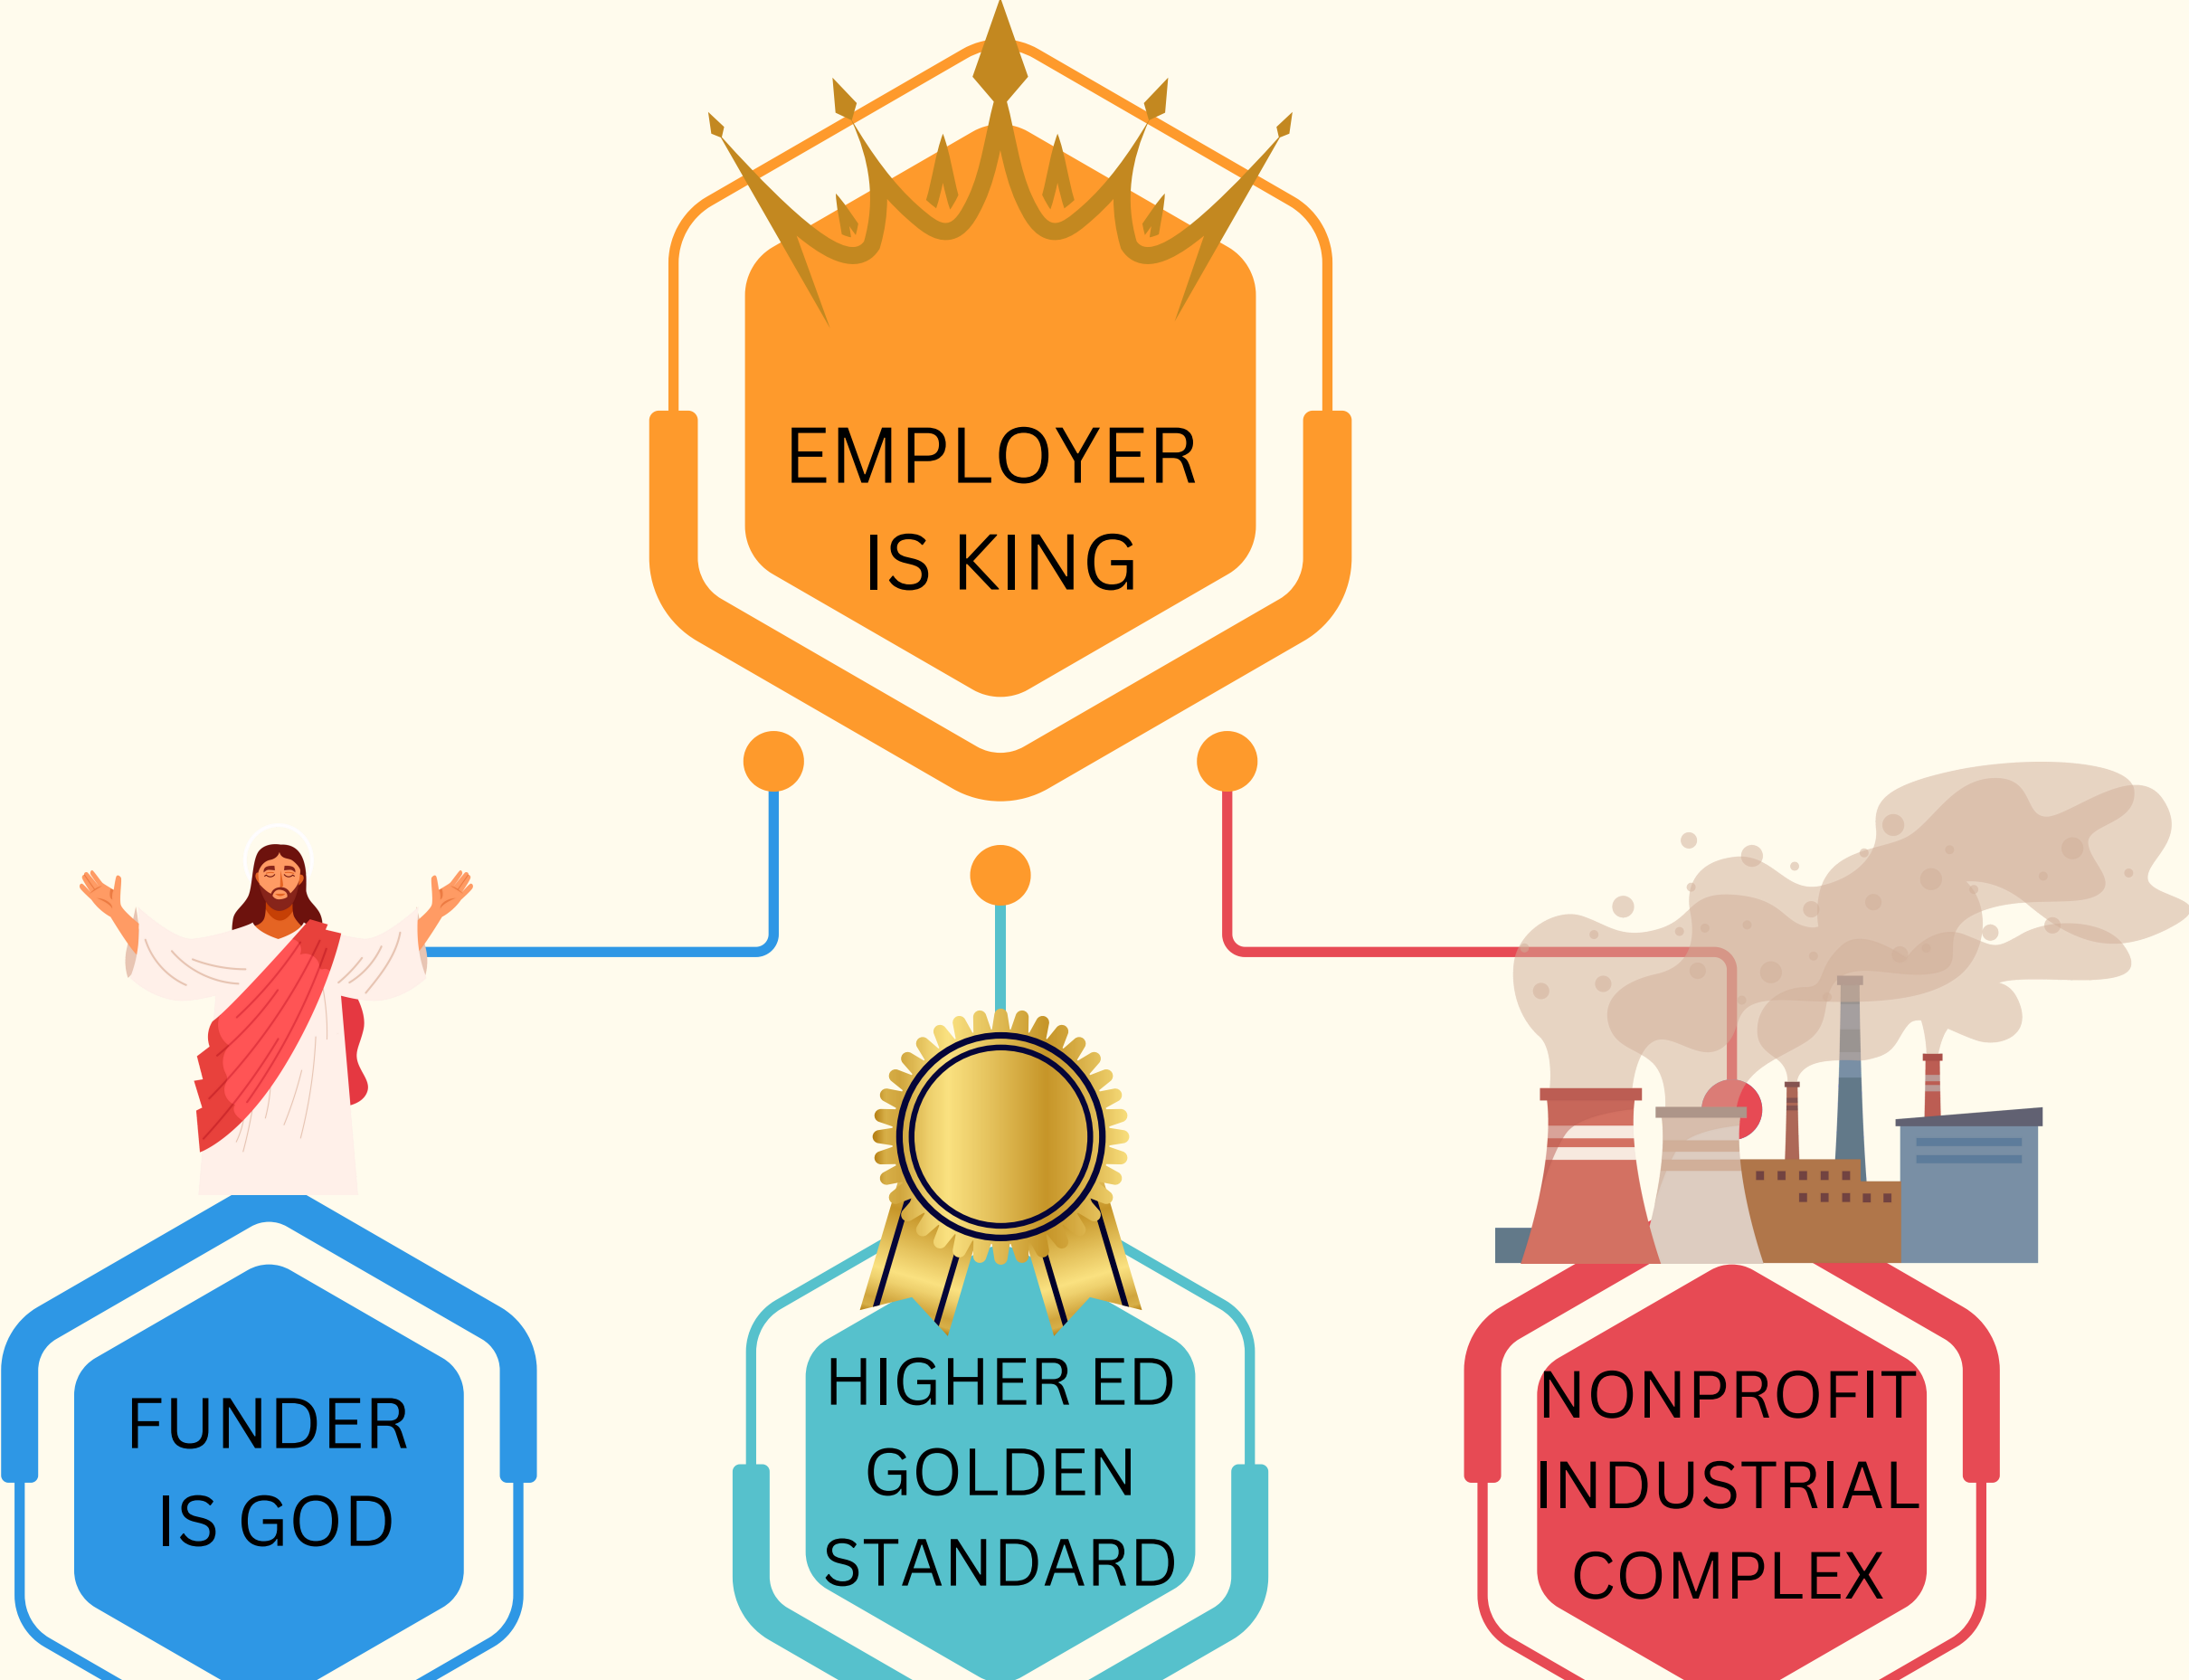

GET HERE?

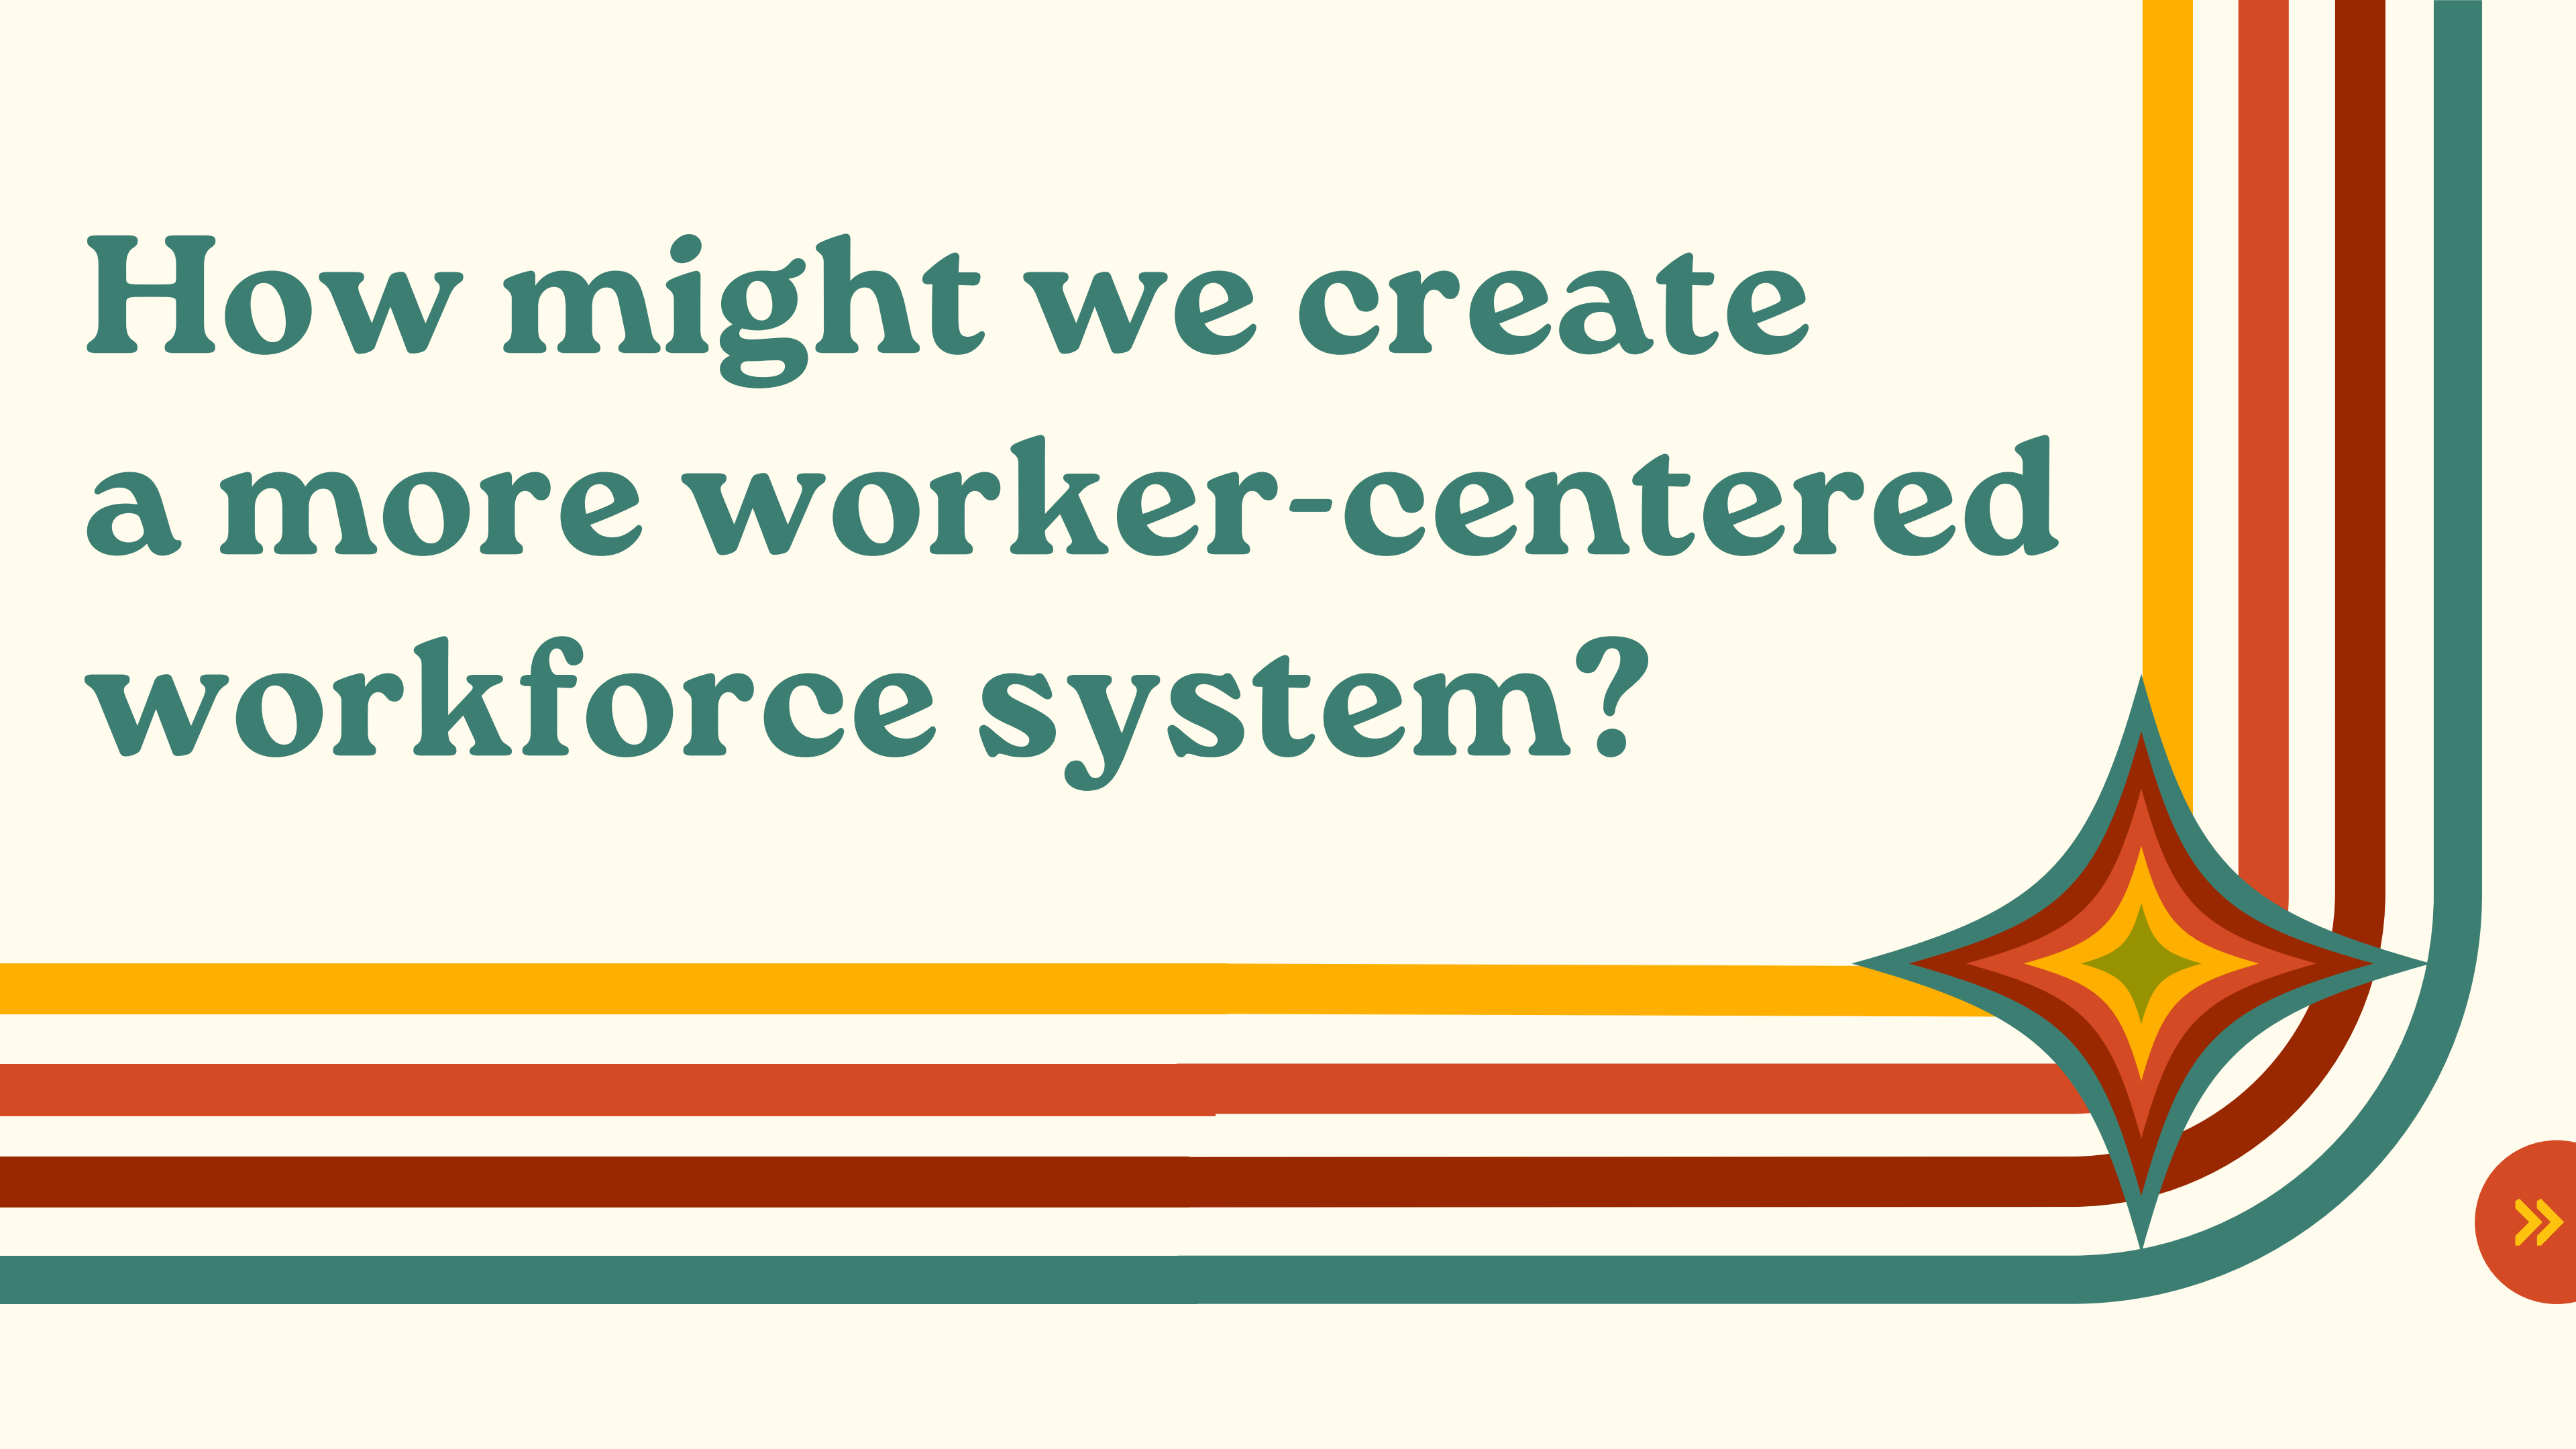

CURRENT

OPPRESSIVE

FORCES

How might we create a more worker-centered workforce system?

Reimagining success to be oriented toward workers needs rather than employer needs

FUNDERS

Have workers participate in the grantmaking process including grant design, review, and evaluation.

Redefining and expanding credentials that value lived experience and worker choice

Embed labor relations and movement history in curriculum

HIGHER EDUCATION

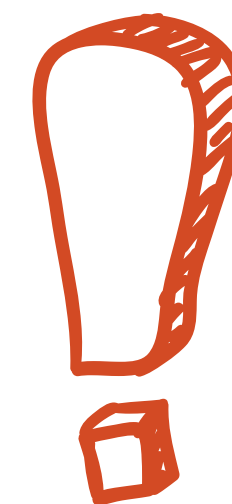

NONPROFITS^{*}

Intentionally resourcing the education and participation of workers in leadership

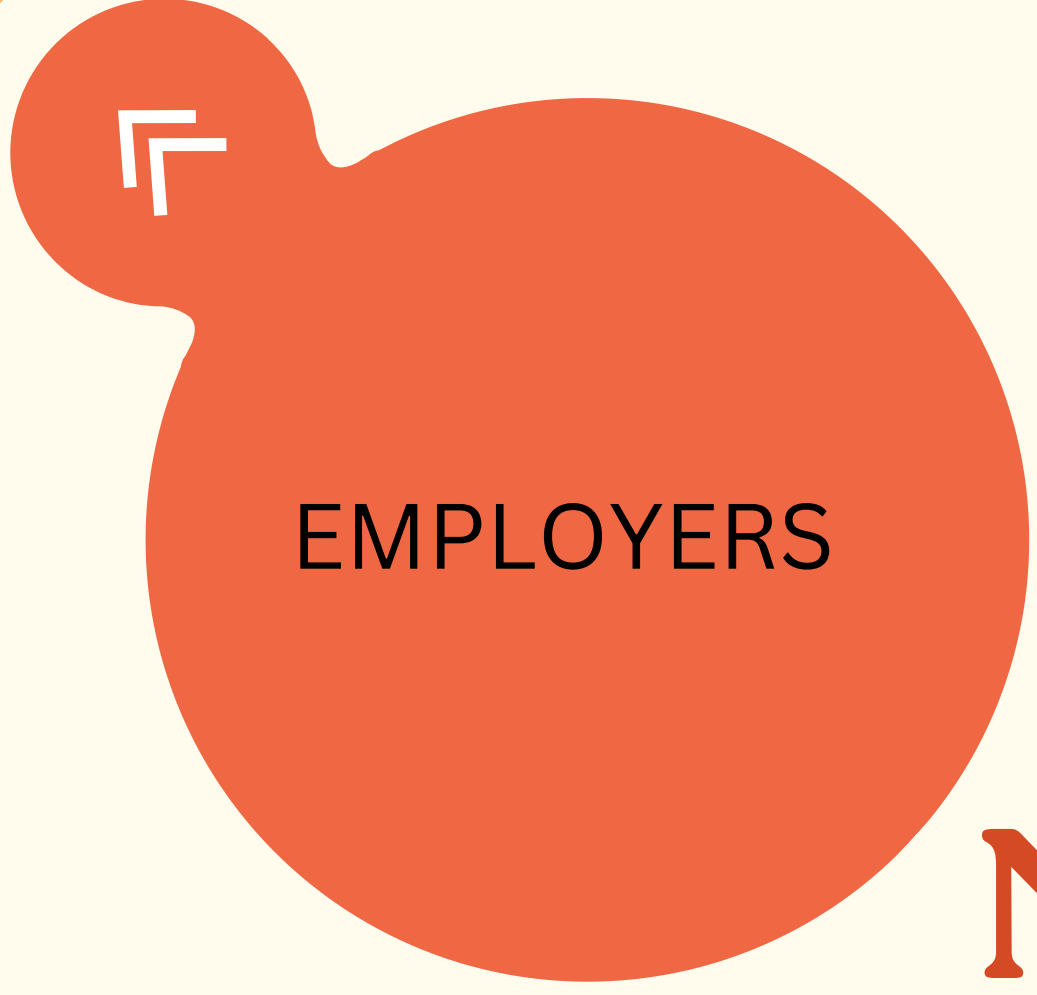

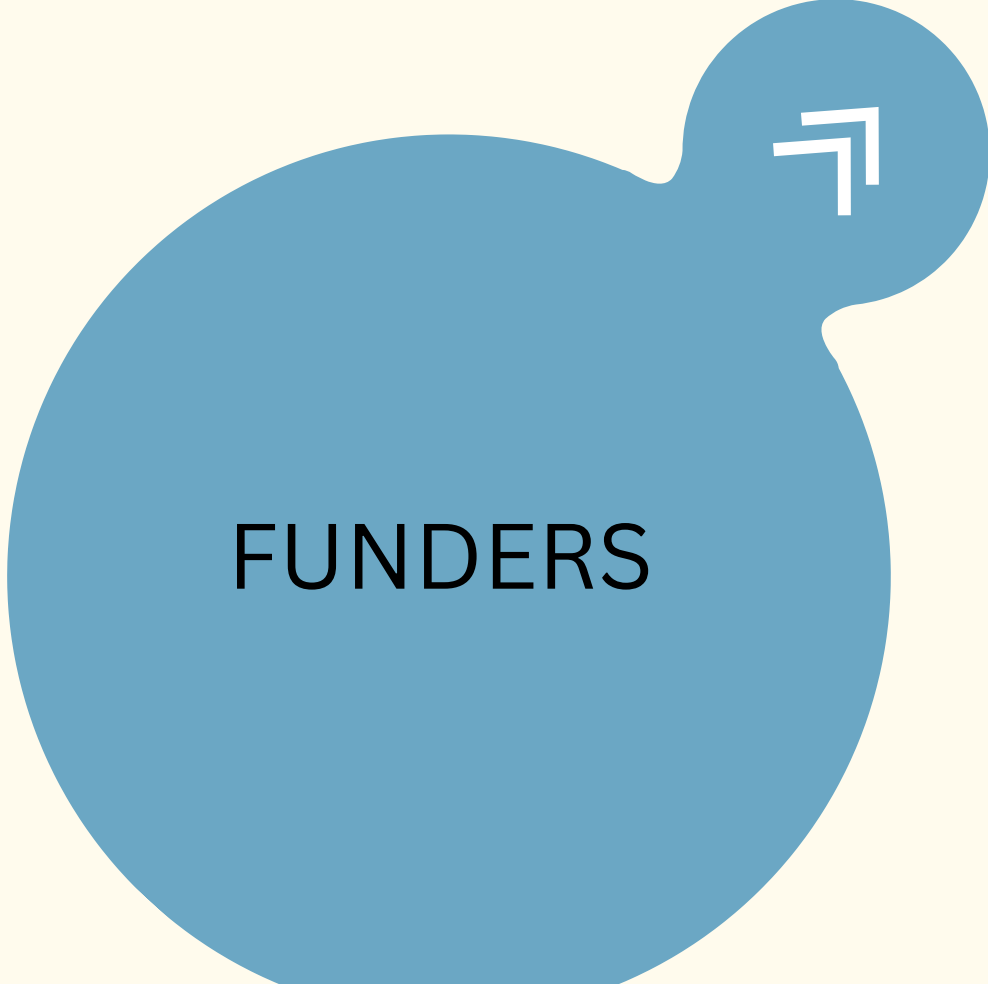

Elevating workers as co-creators

- Programs
- Partnerships
- Nonprofit Boards
- Curriculum

WORKERS

FLIP

THE

NARRATIVE

OUR CALL TO ACTION:

Be action oriented- leave today with the desire to address and change the power dynamics between employers and workers and remember you are a worker, too.

Thank You!

